

OUT & ABOUT

We find out what you've been getting up to in our beautiful world

POWER LUNCH
 Endermologie expert LPG put on a show in late January when they invited journalists to meet with the French head office team and trial a treatment at London's Sanderson hotel. Professional Beauty's Eve Oxberry chatted to LPG's Arnaud Sancois and Jocelyn Rolland.

HEAD START
 Adele Phelan (centre) trialled Micro Hair Technique in his Covent Garden salon in February. The celebrity hairdresser was joined by previous clients of the treatment, a process which involves drawing individual hairs on the scalp to cover scarred or bald areas.

BUBBLING OVER
 The Skincare Sanctuary cracked open the champagne in February in recognition of its 20th anniversary. MD Andrew Bagley (left), finance director Cliff Powell (right) and the office team were in high spirits.

STELLAR START-UP
 Anessa Spa in Clapham celebrated its launch in January with a celeb-filled party that saw the likes of rapper Lisa Maffia and The Only Way Is Essex stars Amy Childs and Henry Dergeidge drop by for a fish pedicure followed by an OPI file and polish.

CAPE TOWN CAPERS
 Endermologie distributors from across the globe gathered in Cape Town to share tips at the brand's annual conference. David Alpert and Tracey Tamara from the UK team joined the team from distributor Protea after-party.

FINALLY...
 Don't miss the April Issue of Professional Beauty where we will bring you tips on choosing the best furniture for your salon and designing stunning looks for small spaces
